Kettering, Ohio – The winners of Day Air Credit Union's $1,000 Scholarships for the 2011-2012 academic year are Tyler Klopstein and Christine Cirillo.

Day Air Credit Union's scholarships are based on academic achievement, extracurricular activities, community service involvement, and an essay on financial literacy. "Day Air feels it is important to award those students who are high achievers both in the classroom and in the community, and our scholarships allow us to do that," says Bill Burke, Day Air President and CEO.
