Day Air Credit Union's Bettina Buscemi Named to a team to Help Prevent Elder Abuse

Kettering, Ohio – June 9, 2010 – A 35-member multi-disciplinary team focused on elder abuse issues has been formed in Montgomery County. The Collaboration Against Abuse, Neglect and Exploitation (C.A.A.N.E.) develops community partnerships to prevent and eliminate elder abuse, neglect and the exploitation of older and vulnerable adults through education, advocacy, intervention and services.

Bettina Buscemi, Business Development Manager at Day Air Credit Union, has been named to the 35-member Montgomery County CAANE multi-disciplinary team focused on elder abuse issues. She is also serving on an education sub-committee particularly working with financial exploitation.

Bettina Buscemi says, "It is very important to be involved in the community. This issue affects so many elderly people and many are unaware that it happens so often right in our community. I am proud to be a part of this team and become an advocate on behalf of those who are affected by all forms of elder abuse." Ms. Buscemi is a Certified Credit Union Financial Counselor, serves on the advisory board of the City of Kettering Charles I. Lathrem Senior Center, Trustee of the Ladies Auxiliary of the VFW Post 2800 and serves as Secretary of the Miami Valley Youth Career Services board of directors.

The Montgomery County Commissioners have designated June 15, 2010 as "Elder Abuse Awareness Day" to draw attention to the neglect and exploitation of older and vulnerable adults. Last year in Montgomery County, there were 1,400 reports of elder abuse, including 407 suspected reports of self neglect.
