

DAY AIR
CREDIT UNION

Service That Soars!

Spring 2009

Newsletter...

In an effort to reduce paper waste and cut costs, Day Air has reduced the newsletter to one page. However, those members who are signed up for Day Air's online banking and receive e-Statements will not receive a paper copy!

Online banking is a great way to take charge of your finances and eliminate waste. We do not send emails with private, account information. Each month, you are notified via email that your statement is available. You can then view your statement on our highly secure site. Also, account information can be printed or downloaded and it is kept on your online account for 12 months.

Think you might be interested? Please call us at 643.2160 today.

Save on Stamps...

Effective May 1 2009, postage rates will increase to $.44/ stamp. In today's world, everyone is looking for ways to save.

Now is a great time for you to start using Day Air's FREE BillPayer service. It's really easy to use and we'll even walk you through the entire process - over the phone or in person.

Choices! You have the option to set your bills to be sent automatically or you can manually change the date they are sent each month. This gives you the flexibility to pay your bills when your money is available.

Think of all the bills you mail! Now think of all the money you could be saving! Click here for more on BillPayer.

For a seminar - Continuing your education at 50+

“Our nation is currently undergoing a demographic revolution as 78 million baby boomers enter their retirement years. Every seven and a half seconds, a baby boomer turns 50 years old. If you aren’t ready to retire, or are unable to, come to this seminar to learn about new opportunities by continuing your education.”

President’s Message

In 2008, we saw unexpected economic turmoil in the financial markets. The turmoil has continued with the credit crisis, a decline in real estate values, a collapse of many financial institutions as well as unforeseen unemployment rates. While Day Air is not immune to the current economic climate, due to our safe and sound lending practices and financial policies, we remain a very strong and well capitalized financial institution.

Our mission is to improve the financial well being of all of our members and we continue to live this mission every day. As your credit union, we want to be there for you whatever your financial need might be; financial planning, budgeting, savings, identity theft solutions, credit score enhancement, and so much more.

Please remember that we have millions to lend. While other financial institutions might be trying to stay away from lending, we welcome the opportunity to save you money with a low rate loan.

Help us grow! This is a great time to tell your friends and families about Day Air. We want to help everyone improve their financial condition. The more we grow, the more people we can continue to serve.

Thanks for your continued membership in Day Air Credit Union.

Don’t Forget

Day Air’s Annual Meeting will be held on Wednesday, April 29, 2009 at the Wilmington Pike Branch, 3501 Wilmington Pike in Kettering beginning at 7:00 pm. Please join us to review the successes of 2008 and share the goals of 2009.

Going out of town?

For your protection, please alert us if you are going out of the state. Due to recent fraud around the country, we have safety measures in place to alert us of any unusual activity on your credit and/or check cards. Please make sure that we have updated cell phone numbers on file so that we can call to verify you are making these purchases.
