FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 5, 2010

Day Air in the community continuing to educate the youth- this time partnering with City of Centerville Schools

Kettering, Ohio – Feb. 5, 2010 – Day Air Credit Union is consistently in the community educating individuals on the importance of financial responsibility. This January, once again, we partnered with the Integrated Transition Options Program (ITOP) of Centerville City Schools to teach a three part series highlighting different financial topics that the students will need to be successful.

“The ITOP students and teachers have benefited from the collaborative partnership with Day Air Credit Union staff over the last two years. Their professional expertise in money management, personal budgeting, credit and identity theft and managing checking accounts has enhanced the ITOP curriculum immensely, as well as our students’ knowledge in these areas,” says Judith Brothers, Job Coordinator of the program.

The Integrated Transition Options Program of Centerville City Schools was established to serve students with special needs who are transitioning from school to work and independent living. The curriculum consists of personal futures planning, career exploration, hands on job training based on individual student interests, abilities, job search and interviewing skills. Students also participate in academic and community activities that enhance a variety of skills for independent living.

If you would like Day Air to come to your organization, please call us at 937.643.2160. We have seminars on a myriad of financial topics but we can customize topics for your group.

Day Air Credit Union with over $202 million in assets and more than 25,000 members is a not-for-profit, full-service financial institution, proudly serving businesses and residents of the Miami Valley.
